VI. College Updates

1. Coastline: Andrea Gallyon shared updates on upcoming regional events for the Hep AI and PEP Technology projects. On the 29th, Hack the Box will visit Coastline's Garden Grove Center for a networking lunch and meet-and-greet to showcase training resources and industry offerings. On the 31st, a Storm Cyber AI Symposium will feature student poster sessions, presentations, and an interactive Capture the Flag event. Faculty across the region are encouraged to attend and help spread the word, with over 100 participants expected.
2. Orange Coast: Lisa Knuppel announced her retirement, with her last official day on campus at the end of the month (January 30). Kyle Slocum will assume leadership of the Regional Workforce project to ensure a smooth transition. She also shared that Orange Coast College will undergo a significant reorganization, with potential divisional and leadership changes and one to two dean positions expected to open in the summer.
3. Saddleback: John Jaramillo announced that Saddleback College submitted its baccalaureate application for the Medical App Technologist program, thanking the region for its approval. He also shared several upcoming and current hiring opportunities, including president, automotive instructor, business instructor, and a director of dual enrollment position opening soon.

Motion to approve January 15, 2026, action item minutes; John Jaramillo, Saddleback College; Second: Denise Foley, Santiago Canyon College. APPROVED
