PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

“MORE AND BETTER CTE REGIONAL FORUMS”

- Recap:
 - Primary audience are those that need an intro to the DWM framework, an intro to the SWP funding models, roles of SNs and DSNs, and CTE Data Unlocked.
 - Audience: CIOs, Faculty & AS Reps, Deans, CSSOs, and others.
- New:
 - We have started an interest/wait list for possibly expanding sessions into Spring 2018. Visit our website, and click More & Better Forums to sign up if you're interested in hosting in Spring 2018.
 - We currently have an opening for a More & Better Forum Facilitator for the Spring 2018. This position is open until filled. If you are interested, you can email Kari Irwin, Communications Chairs, at kirwin@saddlback.edu.

CCCAOE CONFERENCE - GUIDING PATHWAYS TO A STRONG WORKFORCE

- Recap:
 - Dates/Location: November 1-3 at the Omni Resort in Palm Desert
 - The conference begins at 11:30 on 11/1, and closes 11:30 on Friday 11/3.
- New:
 - Over 500 registered attendees for the conference.
 - We still have Pre-conference session openings. They begin the morning of 11/1 at 8am- and include a choice of EDGAR, Project Management, and Apprenticeships.
 - Sessions are being chosen the week of 10/16, and the agenda to be released thereafter.
 - The Omni hotel is full. We do not have an alternate room block, but recommend the Hilton Garden based on its proximity to the conference.

ADVOCACY

- CCCAOE representatives (Kari Irwin, CCCAOE Communications Chair, and John Jaramillo, CCCAOE ACTE Liaison) provided public comment at the Joint Informational Hearing on The Future of CTE In California on Monday October 2 in Orange County.
- The hearing was K-12 centric, and the 1-minute comments were to thank the assembly for the Strong Workforce Vote and to make the connection between K-12 and Community College CTE. The Joint Committees included:
 - Assembly Education Committee
 - Assembly Budget Sub Committee on
 - Assembly Select Committee On CTE
 - Assembly Jobs, Economic Development & The Economy Committee
